

Development Program

Evaluation Grid

Indigenous Stream and Stream for Black People and People of Colour

This Evaluation Grid applies to all applications submitted to the Indigenous Stream or the Stream for Black People and People of Colour.

NOTE: The General Stream evaluation grid has different weightings. Please refer to the Program webpage for the Evaluation Grid applicable to that stream.

Criteria	Weight
Creative Elements	15
Track Record of the Key Creative Personnel (i.e., screenwriter(s) and/or producer(s) and/or director(s) for the packaging phase)	10
Cultural Impact and Audience Reach Potential	5
Total	30

Diversity of Voices

The decision-making process takes into consideration Telefilm's goal of fostering a diversity of voices in the industry, ensuring that Telefilm funds a balanced portfolio of productions reflecting a variety of genres, budgets and company sizes, regions of the country and different viewpoints.

As part of its commitment to fostering a diversity of voices, Telefilm may prioritize projects whose key creatives demonstrate alignment with Telefilm's EDIA Action Plan.

Gender parity remains a priority across all programs, and prioritization also considers the intersectionality of identities to reflect a broad range of lived experiences.

For more information, please see the Development Program Guidelines and the Essential Information Guide on the Development Program webpage.