

Declaration Regarding OLMC-Produced Projects

Anglophone minority communities

Title of the Project:

OLMC Applicant:

Co-Applicant(s):

The OLMC Applicant hereby declares that:

- It is an official language minority community (OLMC) company meaning:
 - A majority of its voting shares are controlled by shareholder(s) (i) residing in Quebec for at least 3 years prior to the Telefilm application submission date; and (ii) who self-identify (ies) as OLMC in Quebec;
 - It operates in, and has had its head office in, Quebec for at least 3 years (unless the company is emerging and in operation for less than 3 years); and
 - It uses English as the original language of production for a majority of its development and production slate.
- The Project is developed and produced in English in Quebec;
- The Project is under the full financial, creative and distribution control of the OLMC Applicant unless the project is a coproduction in which case this control is proportional to the OLMC Applicant's copyright ownership;
- It initially owns and controls the distribution rights to the Project;
- It will retain an ongoing financial interest in the Project;
- Two thirds of the key creative positions (producer, director, writer) are held by individuals who self-identify as OLMC and who reside in Quebec;

TELEFILM CANADA

- If the Project is a coproduction, it will share equitably in fees payable to producers and corporate overhead and share the markets and potential revenues equitably in proportion to the financial participation of each coproducer.
- If the Project is a coproduction, please specify the percentage of copyright held by each applicant:

Production company	% of copyright

The OLMC Applicant acknowledges that Telefilm Canada is relying on this Declaration to determine whether the Project can be considered as an OLMC-produced project for the purposes of the Theatrical Documentary Program. A false or misleading declaration will be considered as an event of default by Telefilm Canada which could, among others, result in an obligation to repay any financing amount paid by Telefilm Canada. Further, the OLMC Applicant understands that information provided in this Declaration will be used for Telefilm Canada to report the presence of OLMC-produced projects within its portfolio as well as for promotional purposes.

OLMC Applicant company:

Signature:

Name of representative:

Title:

Date: