Black and People of Colour

Title of the Project: _____

Applicant: _____

Declaration of Applicant

The Applicant hereby declares that:

- It is majority-owned and controlled by individuals who self-identify as Black or People of Colour within the definition used by Telefilm Canada and indicated in the Guidelines of the Development Program, meaning:
Persons who are non-White in race and not Indigenous. It includes, but is not limited to, those who identify as Black (including Black African, Black-Caribbean), Asian (including East Asian, South Asian, South-East Asian), Latin, Middle-Eastern, North-African as well as individuals who are of bi-racial or mixed race backgrounds.
- The Project is under the financial and creative control of individuals who self-identify as Black or People of Colour.

Key members of the creative team

As set out in the application form for the Project, the Applicant declares that the producer and the screenwriter both self-identify as Black or People of Colour. The Applicant hereby acknowledges that it has obtained the consent of these individuals to disclose this personal information to Telefilm Canada.

The Applicant acknowledges that Telefilm Canada is relying on this declaration to determine whether the Project is eligible under the Development Stream for Black and People of Colour. A false or misleading declaration will be considered as an event of default by Telefilm Canada which could result notably in an obligation to repay any financing amount paid by Telefilm Canada. Further, the Applicant understands that information provided in this declaration will be used in order for Telefilm Canada to report the presence of projects led by Black and People of Colour within its portfolio as well as for promotional purposes.
