

Declaration Regarding Indigenous Projects

Title of the Project: _____

Applicant: _____

Declaration of Applicant

The Applicant hereby declares that:

- It owns at least 51% of the copyright of the Project (or 100% if it is the sole applicant);
- The majority shareholder (i.e. the holder of 51% or more of the voting shares) of the Main Applicant is:
 - o The producer of the Project;
 - o Indigenous within the definition provided in the 2006 Statistics Canada Census for Aboriginal Identity meaning:

“Persons who reported identifying with at least one Aboriginal group, that is, North American Indian, Métis or Inuit, and/or those who reported being a Treaty Indian or a Registered Indian, as defined by the Indian Act of Canada, and/or those who reported they were members of an Indian band or First Nation)”

Key members of the creative team

As set out in the application form for the Project, the Applicant declares that the producer and the screenwriter are Indigenous. The Applicant hereby acknowledges that it has obtained the consent of these individuals to disclose this personal information to Telefilm Canada.

The Applicant acknowledges that Telefilm Canada is relying on this Declaration to determine whether the Project can be assessed as an Indigenous project. A false or misleading declaration will be considered as an event of default by Telefilm Canada which could result notably in an obligation to repay any financing amount paid by Telefilm Canada. Further, the Applicant understands that information provided in this Declaration will be used in order for Telefilm Canada to report the presence of Indigenous projects within its portfolio as well as for promotional purposes.

Signature : _____

Name of representative : _____

Title : _____

Date : _____